FACTS AND FIGURES

20TH ERLANGEN INTERNATIONAL COMIC SALON 16 TO 19 JUNE 2022

The Festival

The Erlangen International Comic Salon, which takes place every two years, is the most important festival for graphic literature in the German-speaking realm and has played a decisive role in changing the perception of comics in Germany – not only as a mass medium but also as an art form. The Comic Salon presents a programme that brings together art and commerce, mainstream and avant-garde. The Salon is seismograph and engine of the German comic industry and has reflected all the facets of the genre for almost 40 years. After the festival had to be cancelled for the first time in 2020 due to the Corona pandemic, we again expect around 30,000 visitors for the 20th International Comic Salon in 2022.

The Comic Fair

The core of the Erlangen International Comic Salon is the Comic Fair, located in marquees right in the heart of the city. More than 200 exhibitors – German and international publishers, agencies, comic dealers, comic and illustration classes from universities – present their programmes. Numerous new releases are introduced to the public for the first time and nearly 500 artists from around the world can be experienced in person, drawing and signing their books. A press office, information counter, trade visitor services and conference rooms of various sizes offer all the amenities and services to fulfil the professional needs of all visitors.

The Exhibitions

The distinctive feature of the Erlangen International Comic Salon is the numerous exhibitions spread across the entire city centre. The Comic Salon presents solo exhibitions dedicated to international comic stars, as well as insights into the German speaking scene, newcomers, thematic exhibitions on comic history, comics and new media, computer animation and film. The work of artists such as ATAK, Baru, Benjamin, Christophe Blain, Émile Bravo, Charles Burns, David B., Derib, Hendrik Dorgathen, Anke Feuchtenberger, Flix, Gipi, Greser & Lenz, Reinhard Kleist, Isabel Kreitz, Jeff Lemire, Nicolas Mahler, Marc-Antoine Mathieu, Lorenzo Mattotti, Moebius, François Schuiten, Art Spiegelman, Joost Swarte, Jirō Taniguchi and Jacques Tardi have been featured in exhibitions so far. The Erlangen International Comic Salon also cooperates with local, national and international art institutions.

The Max und Moritz Award

The Max und Moritz Gala in Erlangen's baroque theatre (Friday, 17 June 2022) is the highlight of the Salon. The Max und Moritz Award, presented by the City of Erlangen, is the most important prize for graphic literature in the German-speaking realm. It is awarded in different categories by an independent jury of professionals and plays a decisive role in the recognition of comic art. The prize recognizes the work of outstanding artists, acknowledges exemplary publishing and encourages the debate on graphic literature in general. In previous years, the award for lifetime achievement was presented to Albert Uderzo, Jacques Tardi, Alan Moore, Pierre Christin, Lorenzo Mattotti, Ralf König, Claire Bretécher, Jean-Claude Mézières and Anke Feuchtenberger.

Kinder lieben Comics!

Inspired by an increasing interest in children's comics and a growing number of high quality publications for younger audiences, „Kinder lieben Comics!“ was first launched in 2016 as a festival within the festival. The brand has since established itself excellently and the four-day programme with interactive projects and exhibitions, readings, workshops and live drawing events attracts a large number of families and younger comic fans.

The Supporting Programme

The supporting programme includes lectures, interviews and panel discussions with artists, authors, journalists and publishers, comic readings, drawing competitions and workshops. The Comic Film Fest presents new comic adaptations and animation films – from recent anime to avant-garde. Family Sunday (19 June 2022) offers many activities for children, adolescents and families at reduced admission fees.

Press comments

This Comic Salon was unique. The fair took place in three marquees of various sizes, especially erected for the occasion, and Erlangen's beautiful public gardens became an integral part of the festival grounds. The Comic Salon presented itself in the heart of the city, conspicuously benefitting from all its local advantages.

Süddeutsche Zeitung, June 2018

The real sensation of the past Erlangen Comic Salon was not the new attendance record of over 30.000 visitors or the announcement of the Max und Moritz Awards – it was the overall atmosphere of an event that seemed to have cast a magic spell over the entire city, unprecedented in the more than 30 years of this festival's tradition.

Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung, June 2018

The last Comic Salon counted around 30.000 visitors – a new record for the most important gathering of the comic scene in Germany. All sectors and genres were represented in their ever-increasing diversity. A clear signal for the growing significance and strength of comics.

Deutschlandfunk, June 2018

Unlike anywhere else, Erlangen most impressively reveals the diversity of the comic scene. The ninth art's creativity is currently breaking fresh, exciting grounds. This is witnessed in the area dedicated to independent artists as much as in the exhibition grounds that present established publishers.

Nürnberger Nachrichten, June 2018

It is the intimacy that makes Erlangen so appealing – the closeness to both the artists and their "products", displaying the various stages of the creative process, as well as the commercial exploitation.

Die Welt, May 2016

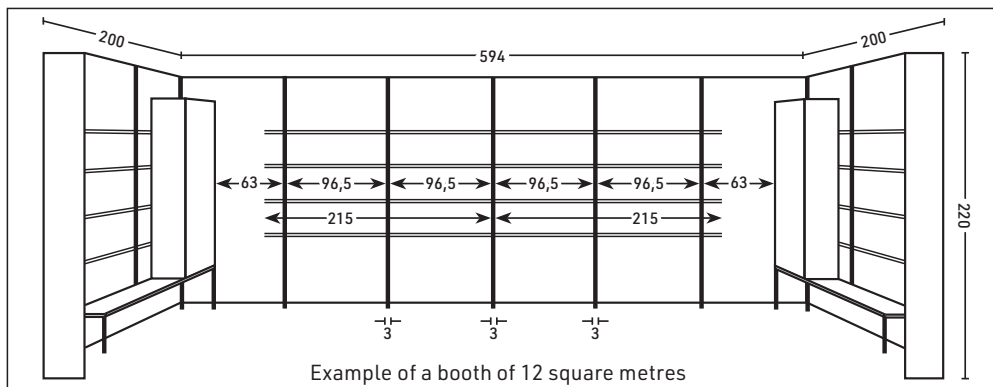

The International Comic Salon Erlangen, which takes place every two years, functions primarily as a seismograph for the development of the German-speaking comic scene.

1. Duration of the Comic Fair

1.1 The 20th Erlangen International Comic Salon will take place from 16 to 19 June 2022. The comic fair venues will be open daily from 9 a.m. for the exhibitors.

1.2 The organiser shall reserve the right to postpone the comic fair for important reasons, change the duration of the comic fair and the opening times, to cancel the comic fair completely or end it early. With regard to all changes the agreements signed by the exhibitors shall be entirely valid; any claim for booth hire charges shall remain valid unless the comic fair is cancelled due to reasons within the sphere of the organiser.

2. Exhibitors

2.1 Any German and foreign graphic literature and comic publishing houses, agencies, sales departments, bookshops, artists and collectors are entitled to exhibit at the comic fair.

2.2 Exhibitors against whom any legal bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted shall not be allowed to exhibit. The organiser must be informed without delay in the event of such proceedings being instituted after registration for the comic fair.

3. Exhibited items

3.1 At the International Comic Salon the items exhibited shall only refer to graphic literature, comics and the like including, for example, cartoons, caricatures, cartoon films, merchandise and the like.

3.2 There is no censorship by the organiser.

3.3 It is not permitted to exhibit any items which have been banned from production, distribution or import by courts of the Federal Republic of Germany, or by any existing foreign court decisions, providing these decisions have been declared enforceable by courts of the Federal Republic of Germany. The advertising of any items excluded from the comic fair shall be forbidden as well.

3.4 Any works and the like which have been indicated as liable to corrupt the young shall not be made available to minors.

4. Agreement of contract and assignment of location

4.1 Registration for the comic fair shall be carried out in writing by 31 January 2022 at the latest (final deadline).

4.2 Registration is binding for the exhibitor. The agreement of contract shall become effective once the registration has been confirmed by the organiser.

4.3 Any early registration by letter, possibly including any requests for reservations shall be invalid unless it is confirmed.

4.4 All alterations and provisos on the registration forms (or anything in connection with them), which are carried out by the exhibitor, shall be invalid and shall be regarded as unwritten.

4.5 Any additional changes to the initial order of booth equipment are subject to a processing fee of Euro 15,00.

4.6 The conclusion of the contract shall not establish the right of the exhibitor to have a certain place allocated, whereas the wishes of the exhibitors regarding location, vicinity, size and group formation shall be taken into consideration if possible.

4.7 The organiser shall be entitled to lower, but not to raise, the booth sizes applied for; the booth hire charges will decrease accordingly in such a case.

4.8 The swapping of booths between exhibitors shall require the prior agreement of the organiser.

5. Website

All exhibitors shall be included on the website at www.comic-salon.de. Inclusion is compulsory; it shall not imply any liability of the organiser regarding the completeness as well as the correctness of the entry.

6. Equipment and fittings of the booths

6.1 Standard fair booths shall be made available by the organiser. Costs of all additional services such as connection to the main electricity etc. shall be borne by the exhibitor.

6.2 Any fabric or materials used for the decoration of the fair booths must be fireproof (at least German standard B1). Any decorations which cause damage to the booth are not permitted. Repairs or replacement of any damaged, destroyed or lost items of equipment shall be carried out exclusively by the organiser, the cost thereof being borne by the exhibitor.

6.3 The space of a booth area can be rented without the standard equipment as well, and can be decorated by the exhibitor. The material of the exhibitor used for decorating purposes shall be used only within the rented space. If exhibitors use their own equipment they must strictly observe and comply with the regulations and requirements as laid down by the fire authorities.

6.4 Any booth equipment of the exhibitor as well as any advertising media shall under no circumstances exceed a height of 250 cm, exceptions only after prior arrangement with the organiser.

6.5 In the event of contravention the organiser shall be entitled to have any necessary changes carried out at the expense of the exhibitor.

7. Setting up and dismantling

7.1 Setup for exhibitors is possible as of 15 June 2022, 9 a.m..

7.2 Any booths which are not in use on the first day of the fair by 10 a.m. shall be free to be allocated elsewhere by the organiser. Any claim for the repayment of paid booth hire charges shall be excluded, save as provided in condition 8.2.

7.3 The fair booths must not be vacated before 6 p.m. on the last day of the fair. The organiser shall reserve the right to impose contract penalties. The booths must be cleared and cleaned by 10 p.m..

7.4 The booth equipment must be returned in perfect condition after the end of the fair. In the event of empty booth areas having been rented, these areas have to be returned empty after the end of the comic fair.

8. Booth hire charges

8.1 The organiser reserves the right to increase or lower the booth hire charges for individual booths or for all types of booths in the event of unforeseen occurrences, if such incidents permit or make such changes necessary. The increase, however, may not exceed 10 %.

8.2 The booth hire charges must be paid even if the exhibitor – for whatever reason – is prevented from exhibiting items at the fair. Should the organiser succeed in finding a replacement exhibitor for the booth, the original exhibitor shall be required to pay 25 % of the original booth hire charges as compensation for costs incurred. This charge can be lowered to 15 % should the original exhibitor who is unable to exhibit find a replacement himself.

9. Payment deadlines

9.1 Booth hire charges or fees for any other services have to be paid into the organiser's account within 21 days of date of invoice.

9.2 The exhibitor forfeits his right to exhibit at the comic fair without prejudice to his obligation to pay the booth hire charge if payment of such is not received within the deadline set.

10. Sale of items

Selling by private contract is permitted without restriction at the comic fair.

11. Exhibitor badges

11.1 Only persons with a special exhibitor badge are allowed to enter the Comic Salon. A number of exhibitor badges shall be made available, based on the size of the booth (see IMPORTANT DATES AT A GLANCE).

11.2 Additional badges for other persons connected or related to the exhibitors can only be ordered on request based on the size of the booth at a charge of Euro 21,80 each, plus 19 % VAT. The badges must bear the name of the holder and are not transferable. Any abuse of badges shall lead to them being withdrawn without compensation.

12. Insurance, liability

12.1 Insurance cover for booth equipment and fittings brought by the exhibitor as well as for the exhibits themselves against burglary, theft, fire and damage by water as well as against damage in transit to and from the Comic Salon is solely the responsibility of each individual exhibitor. Collective or group policies shall not be taken out.

12.2 The organiser is only liable for damage caused intentionally or as a result of gross negligence; in the event of physical injury or damage to health, liability is excluded only in the event of slight negligence.

12.3 The exhibitor is liable in accordance with the legal regulations. Exhibitors who share a booth together are jointly and severally liable.

13. Conduct at the Comic Salon

13.1 Every exhibitor is jointly responsible for the success of the Salon. Actions which may disturb or hinder the Salon or any other exhibitor in an unjustifiable manner are therefore forbidden.

13.2 With the exception of the display and distribution of advertising material on the booth itself, the displaying and distribution of any other advertising and printed material in the fair hall is forbidden. Any use of acoustic advertising or mobile illuminated advertising is likewise forbidden as is any other advertising over the site of the comic fair.

13.3 Advertising and sales vehicles or buses with books, etc. may only be parked at the site of the fair for a fee and after consulting with the organiser.

13.4 Receptions, lectures, press conferences, public discussions and draws or raffles, etc. on the fairgrounds require the prior written approval of the organiser.

13.5 It is part of the responsibility of each exhibitor to help prevent theft as far as possible and to help ensure that any theft discovered is liable to criminal prosecution. Irrespective of this, in such cases, the organiser shall institute criminal proceedings.

14. Failure to comply with these conditions

In the event of an exhibitor contravening these conditions and in the event of such conduct which is in breach of contract being continued in spite of warnings, or if any such contravention of the regulations at previous Comic Salons is repeated, the organiser has the right to ban the exhibitor concerned from taking any further part in the Salon and in extremely serious cases also from taking part in future Comic Salons. This also applies when items are exhibited which have been forbidden by court order, or if exhibitors or any of their staff are involved in any criminal acts or incitement to such (for example, theft or intentional violation of copyright laws).

15. Claims of the exhibitors

15.1 All possible claims of the exhibitor arising from the contract concluded with the organiser as well as any non-contractual claims must be entered in writing with the organiser within 10 days at the latest from the end of the Comic Salon. Irrespective of this, they become statute-barred if they have not been claimed in a court of law before the end of the calendar year involved.

15.2 In accordance with a person's right to express his opinion embodied in the Basic Law for the Federal Republic of Germany, certain disturbances at the Comic Salon are possible and inevitable for a limited period of time. The organiser is not liable for any damage incurred by the exhibitor during such time.

16. Place of performance, jurisdiction, miscellaneous

Place of performance and exclusive jurisdiction for all disputes between exhibitors and the organiser is Erlangen. The laws of the Federal Republic of Germany are applicable. Should any stipulations of these terms and conditions be partly or wholly invalid, the parties to the contract shall seek an amicable ruling which comes closest to the aims set out in the invalid clause. The other provisions remain unaffected.

9.2 The exhibitor forfeits his right to exhibit at the fair without prejudice to his obligation to pay the booth hire charge if payment of such is not received within the deadline set.

10. Sale of items

Selling by private contract is permitted without restriction at the fair.

11. Exhibitor badges

Only persons with a special exhibitor badge are allowed to enter the Comic Salon. Every exhibitor shall receive one exhibitor badge (included with the stand fee). In addition up to two additional badges may be ordered at the price of Euro 21,80 plus 19 % VAT. The badges must bear the name of the holder and are not transferable. Any abuse of badges shall lead to them being withdrawn without compensation.

12. Insurance, liability

12.1 Insurance cover for booth equipment and fittings brought by the exhibitor as well as for the exhibits themselves against burglary, theft, fire and damage by water as well as against damage in transit to and from the Comic Salon is solely the responsibility of each individual exhibitor. Collective or group policies shall not be taken out.

12.2 The organiser is only liable for damage caused intentionally or as a result of gross negligence; in the event of physical injury or damage to health, liability is excluded only in the event of slight negligence.

12.3 The exhibitor is liable in accordance with the legal regulations.

13. Conduct at the Comic Salon

13.1 Every exhibitor is jointly responsible for the success of the Salon. Actions which may disturb or hinder the Salon or any other exhibitor in an unjustifiable manner are therefore forbidden.

13.2 With the exception of the display and distribution of advertising material on the booth itself, the displaying and distribution of any other advertising and printed material in the fair hall is forbidden. Any use of acoustic advertising or mobile illuminated advertising is likewise forbidden as is any other advertising over the site of the fair.

13.3 Advertising and sales vehicles or buses with books, etc. may only be parked at the site of the fair for a fee and after consulting with the organiser.

13.4 Receptions, lectures, press conferences, public discussions and draws or raffles, etc. on the fairgrounds require the prior written approval of the organiser.

13.5 It is part of the responsibility of each exhibitor to help prevent theft as far as possible and to help ensure that any theft discovered is liable to criminal prosecution. Irrespective of this, in such cases, the organiser shall institute criminal proceedings.

14. Failure to comply with these conditions

In the event of an exhibitor contravening these conditions and in the event of such conduct which is in breach of contract being continued in spite of warnings, or if any such contravention of the regulations at previous Comic Salons is repeated, the organiser has the right to ban the exhibitor concerned from taking any further part in the Salon and in extremely serious cases also from taking part in future Comic Salons. This also applies when items are exhibited which have been forbidden by court order, or if exhibitors or any of their staff are involved in any criminal acts or incitement to such (for example, theft or intentional violation of copyright laws).

15. Claims of the exhibitors

15.1 All possible claims of the exhibitor arising from the contract concluded with the organiser as well as any non-contractual claims must be entered in writing with the organiser within 10 days at the latest from the end of the Comic Salon. Irrespective of this, they become statute-barred if they have not been claimed in a court of law before the end of the calendar year involved.

15.2 In accordance with a person's right to express his opinion embodied in the Basic Law for the Federal Republic of Germany, certain disturbances at the Comic Salon are possible and inevitable for a limited period of time. The organiser is not liable for any damage incurred by the exhibitor during such time.

16. Place of performance, jurisdiction, miscellaneous

Place of performance and exclusive jurisdiction for all disputes between exhibitors and the organiser is Erlangen. The laws of the Federal Republic of Germany are applicable.

Should any stipulations of these terms and conditions be partly or wholly invalid, the parties to the contract shall seek an amicable ruling which comes closest to the aims set out in the invalid clause. The other provisions remain unaffected.
